Praise versus Encouragement

July 28th, Wednesday

6:00 -- 8:00 pm

Note: Class will be held at Families First, 401 S Canyon Blvd, John Day

Praise and rewards can damage our relationship with children. The use of praise or rewards does not make children feel supported. It makes them feel evaluated and judged which can be dangerous. Join us for a discussion of better ways to interact with children than always responding with "Good Job" or "Good Boy/Girl."
