Development of Social & Emotional Competence

First Connections Curriculum for Development of Children from Birth – 3 years.

January 9th, Monday @ 6:15 - 9:15 pm

The vision of social and emotional development of children is the development of self, social skills, and guidance. Participants will gain an overview of temperament differences and will discuss the “goodness of fit” to respond to the needs of the individual child. Focus is on children birth to three years.

Financial Incentives for participation in all First Connection classes!

This Core Series of 6 classes begins January 9th and continues through May. April and May dates will be set in March.

Instructor for the series: Jean Johnson, BS, Early Childhood Trainer

ckc: Human Growth & Development, Set 1

Tax Planning and Tips for Your Child Care Business

To be announced via email

Call if you want to take this class. We will notify you when the date is set. You may want to take the Business Planning class on February 21st also (see information below.)

Getting in Tune with Infants & Toddlers

First Connections Curriculum for Development of Children from Birth – 3 years

January 30th, Monday @ 6:15 - 9:15 pm

The nurturing relationship between an infant and caregiver is the heart of quality infant care. When caregivers respond in a way that meets the children’s needs, they are “in tune”. Through watching, acting, and adapting, caregivers can learn the responsive process to build nurturing relationships.

Instructor: Jean Johnson

ckc: Human Growth & Development, Set 1

Environment of Respectful Caregiving

First Connections Curriculum for Development of Children from Birth – 3 years

February 13th, Monday @ 6:15 - 9:15 pm

Respectful caregiving is the basis of quality environments for infants and toddlers. When caregivers give “full attention”, they can observe and respect children’s abilities and points of view. Simple toys that can be used in a variety of ways are valuable learning tools.

Instructor: Jean Johnson

ckc: Learning Environments & Curriculum, Set 1

Planning for Your Business

February 21st, Tuesday @ 6:30 – 8:30 pm

Running a business takes many skills and much planning. Learn tips and techniques to put in place that will help make your business more manageable so you can plan for your future. Business expenses, deductions, and recordkeeping documentation will be highlighted.

Instructor: Danielle Phillips, Early Learning Trainer

ckc: Program Management, Set 1

Routines & Relationships

First Connections Curriculum for Development of Children from Birth – 3 years

March 12th, Monday @ 6:15 - 9:15 pm

Daily routines, such as feeding, diapering, arrivals and departures, create intimate bonds between child and caregiver. Routines provide important learning opportunities for infants and toddlers. Accurate written records on routines can be used to reflect on children’s growth and development and to share knowledge with families.

Instructor: Jean Johnson

ckc: Learning Environments & Curriculum, Set 1
